

ERIC ROBERTSON

Year of Call

1994

Devil Masters

The Hon Lord Pentland (then Paul B Cullen KC)

Sheriff Principal CAL Scott KC

Frances McMenamin KC

Practice Profile

Eric is a highly experienced litigator with a diverse civil practice, which covers commercial and property related issues in the Commercial Court, Court of Session and Sheriff Courts. Eric also represents parties in arbitrations and, on occasion, carries out the duties of commissioner in recovering documentary and electronic evidence.

Eric has a wide range of knowledge and experience in contract (including building contracts); reparation; professional negligence; commercial property; partnership and agency; and company law (including unfair prejudice petitions, director disqualification and insolvency). Other areas of expertise include judicial review, unjustified enrichment, data protection and intellectual property cases involving patents, copyright and passing off claims.

An important aspect of Eric's skill set is his use of principled negotiation to resolve disputes. He has represented and advised parties in mediations and is adept at using negotiating skills and insights in a variety of contexts.
