

GORDON JACKSON QC

Year of Call

1979

Year of Silk

1990

Devil Masters

HA Kerrigan QC

Sheriff Andrew Lothian

Practice Profile

Gordon is regularly instructed as defence counsel across the full gamut of criminal practice, including trials and appeals. He is held in high respect for his no-nonsense practical approach coupled with his eloquent oratory and dexterity in interpreting the key relevant facts of a case. Together these skills ensure Gordon's reputation as a well instructed and feared opponent at the Criminal Bar. Gordon is the current Dean of the Faculty of Advocates.

Education & Professional Career to Date

LLB

Appointments

- Dean of the Faculty of Advocates (2016–present)
- Vice Dean of the Faculty of Advocates (2014–2016)
- Advocate Depute (1987–1991)

Areas of Practice

- Crime