

KEVIN MCCAFFERY

Year of Call

2003

Devil Masters

Lord Arthurson
Lorenzo Alonzi

Practice Profile

Kevin has a busy practice covering all aspects of personal injury, including workplace accidents and medical negligence. In many cases, Kevin has worked as the sole counsel instructed; he also works regularly with senior counsel. Prior to calling to the Bar in 2003, Kevin worked as a solicitor in Edinburgh, dealing mainly in civil reparation. Since joining Faculty, Kevin has been regularly instructed in both pursuer and defender reparation, as well as in his other areas of practice, appearing in the Court of Session and Sheriff Court. He acquired considerable Sheriff Court experience before his admission to Faculty.

Education & Professional Career to Date

Solicitor in private practice in Edinburgh

LLB (Hons) (Glasgow); Diploma in Legal Practice (Edinburgh)

Selected Cases

- Ashbridge v Christian Salvesen
- Reference from the Scottish Criminal Cases Review Committee in the case of Brian Kelly
- Kenneil v Kenneil
- Geoffrey Mitchell (curator ad litem for Marc Bell) v Allianz Cornhill
- Todd v Clapperton
- Clark v Quantum Claims Compensation Specialists Ltd; [2012] SLT 979
-

Janice McSeveney v Bruce and Mary Henderson (CSOH), unreported

- O'Neill v DHL Services Ltd (CSOH), unreported
- Doran v Shanks Waste Management (CSOH), unreported
- McGee v RJK Building Services

Areas of Practice

- Clinical and Professional Negligence
- Employment, Discrimination and Harassment
- Personal Injury
- Public and Fatal Accident Inquiries