Practice Profile

Martin has a broad practice focusing mainly on reparation. He is regularly instructed as principal counsel and as junior counsel, working with a senior. He has a particular interest in employers' liability and medical negligence.

Prior to calling to the Bar, Martin trained at HBM Sayers and practised at Thompsons Solicitors. As a solicitor, he pursued and defended actions involving among others personal injuries, credit hire, medical and professional negligence.

Martin regularly appears in the Outer House of the Court of Session. He has also appeared in the Inner House, numerous Sheriff Courts and employment tribunals. Such appearances have recently included proofs, a Fatal Accident Inquiry, reclaiming motions, motions for interim orders and judicial expenses disputes.
