

THOMAS MULHALL

Year of Call

2022

Devil Masters

Malcolm McGregor KC

Niall McCluskey

Scott Manson

Practice Profile

Thomas Mulhall is an experienced practitioner of civil litigation, specialising in personal injury, credit hire and professional negligence. He has a particular interest in maritime disputes.

Prior to calling at the bar Thomas gained 9 years of legal experience across a range of mixed practice law firms, primarily representing both pursuers and defenders in personal injury actions. As a solicitor he appeared in the sheriff court and Sheriff Personal Injury Court, conducting proofs and contentious hearings. Just prior to coming to the bar Thomas worked on high profile and complex cases involving allegations of historic childhood abuse.

Education & Professional Career to Date

Diploma in Professional Legal Practice, University of Edinburgh
LLB Law Hons, University of Edinburgh

Clyde & Co, Solicitor

Brodies, Solicitor

DWF, Solicitor

Gildeas, Trainee Solicitor

Areas of Practice

- Clinical and Professional Negligence
- Commercial
- Personal Injury
- Public and Fatal Accident Inquiries

Publications & Seminars

Better the Devil You Know - Judicial Interest (2022)

The Axa Case and Scots Law - Edinburgh Student Law Journal